

PHOTO ANNEX

Photo 1 Black Bryony (© Janice Robertson)

Thanks to Bob Phillips and Janice Robertson for the excellent photos.

All photos © Bob Phillips, except where indicated © Janice Robertson

Photo 2 Columbine – leaves only

Photo 3 Dewberry – blue-black fruit and leaves

Photo 4 Figwort sp. Close-up of fruit (© Janice Robertson) see Footnote to Consolidated List)

Photo 5 Figwort sp. Leaves with leaflets (© Janice Robertson)
(see Footnote to Consolidated List)

Photo 6 Figwort sp. Showing fruit, stem, leaves and stem base leaflets
(see Footnote to Consolidated List)

Photo 7 Canadian Fleabane – flowers and leaves

Photo 8 Meadowsweet

Photo 9 Bristly Oxtongue flower and bristly stem and leaves

Photo 10 Snowberry – white berries and leaves

Photo 11 Hairy St John's Wort – pubescent (hairy) leaf

Photo 12 Smooth Tare – flower and leaves

Photos 13 and 14 Greater Birdsfoot Trefoil

Photo 15 Bush Vetch – leaves, tendrils and seed pods

Photo 16 Bush Vetch – flowers and leaves – note leaf bristle tips

Photo 17 Water-Pepper – flowers and leaves

Photo 18 Hedge Woundwort seed head (© Janice Robertson)

Photo 19 Beech leaves, scaly cup and nut (mast)

Photo 20 Blackthorn – with fruit (sloe) and leaves

Photo 21 Dogwood – leaves and black berries

Photo 22 Field Maple – leaf shape

Photo 23 Gorse, one of the few plants that can be in flower at any time of the year

Photo 24 Hawthorn – leaves and red berries

Photo 25 Midland Hawthorn, with three-lobed leaves

Photo 26 Hornbeam – leaves and winged seeds

Photo 27(a) Northern Red Oak (non- native) – large leaves

Photo 27(b) Northern Red Oak – leaves and trunk (© Janice Robertson)

Photo 28 Pin Oak (non-native) – acorn and shallow cup (and note the leaf bud cluster typical of oak species)

Photo 29 Pin Oak (non-native) – leaves

Photo 30 Wild Privet – leaves and black berries

Photo 31 Guelder Rose – red berries and leaves

Photo 32 Goat Willow - leaves

Photo 33 Male Fern overview showing shape of the plant and fronds (© Janice Robertson)

Photo 34 Male Fern showing scales on lower stems (© Janice Robertson)

Photo 35 Male Fern showing fronds

Photo 36 Male Fern – showing reverse of fronds with sori (spore capsules)

Photo 37 Wood Small-reed – a grass showing inflorescence and upper stem